They were later committed for trial at Crown Court charged with offences under the Race Relations Act.

TRIAL DATE SET

STILL DEFIANT. On Tuesday April 23rd Martin Wingfield, Editor of National Front News, appears at Lewes Crown Court charged with inciting racial hatred against Blacks and Asians.

The charges arise from an election leaflet put out during Brighton Borough Council elections in May 1983.

Martin would appreciate all the moral support he can get so if you can, get along to Lewes Crown Court, in Sussex, on the 23rd April.

EXPOSING MARXIST TEACHERS

TEACHERS AT SWANLEY Comprehensive in Kent lined up in front of National Front leafletters in an effort to stop them handing out leaflets to pupils.

Despite this action and despite the teachers giving warnings to those pupils taking leaflets, on Wednesday March 20th over 300 'British Youth' leaflets, 250 'Swanley pupils fight back' leaflets and 300 Bulldogs were distributed outside the school gates.

The Young National Front campaign in Kent is spearheading a YNF campaign throughout the country. A campaign that has stirred up left-wing teachers and politicians alike into taking outrageous action in an attempt to stop the spread of the Patriotic British Word in schools.

* On Friday March 22nd teachers at Swanley sent pupils home half an hour early in an attempt to foil a 'rumoured' YNF leafletting session outside the school.

* Swanley headmaster Mr. D. MacIldowie gives regular lectures in assembly against the National Front.

* The deputy headmaster has sent pupils home for wearing union jack badges and union jack cloth patches.

* Pupils have been threatened with expulsion for being in possession of NF leaflets or stickers.

But probably the most sinister aspect of the whole affair is the school's use of the 'Police Juvenile Bureau' and the political use of the police to dissuade pupils from the National Front. Kent Divisional Commander, Chief Inspector Brian Kendall, according to the Dartford and Swanley Chronicle, "... is willing to use the 'Juvenile Bureau' when visiting schools to talk to pupils about the National Front".

Even though in its earliest stages, the Young National Front campaign is paying dividends.

Kent Regional Organiser, Paul Johnson, reports that a group of a dozen pupils from the school have already started regular weekly leafletting in Sevenoaks; that ten pupils attended the 'Work Not Dole March' in Dartford and the same number help with a NF papersale in Maidstone.

Spy on your Colleagues

TEACHERS IN Oldham have been told to spy on their colleagues and report any 'alleged racist attitude' to the Oldham Community Relations Committee.

This order, like something out of Orwell's 1984, comes from Mr. Keith Bradford, Oldham's Community Relations Officer who has called on teachers to 'root out Racism' amongst their colleagues. He blames the dismal exam results of the borough's Asian and West Indians totally on racist teachers.

He told the Oldham Evening Chronicle, "Under-achievement among minority groups is far more likely to come from racist attitudes than the abilities of the children".

Bradford, who over the last 12 months has managed to upset every section of Oldham's community (except the coloured immigrants of course) the latest being the towns employers, "It's the racist attitude of employers that is stopping coloured immigrants from getting work", is also campaigning for the banning of schools morning assembly and advocates the compulsory teaching of Urdu and Bengali in Oldham's schools.

SUMMIT ON THE NF

PETER WALKER, the Minister for Energy and MP for Worcester launched a hysterical attack on the Worcester Branch of the National Front as their local YNF schools campaign got underway.

On March 2nd Worcester organiser Jim Barry and six of his members gave out YNF leaflets to pupils at Christopher Whitehead School. It was the first step in their recruitment drive across the county's schools in Kidderminster, Droitwich and Wychbold.

Despite top level meetings between County Councillor, Dorothy Gethings, Chairman of the School Governors; Eric Jones, County Secretary of the National Union of Teachers; County Education Chief David Mullet and Peter Walker, it was agreed that the National Front was totally within their rights to distribute leaflets at the school gates.

NF News gives the final words to Peter Walker. He told the Worcester Evening News, "The National Front has a dreadful record on race relations" ... I don't think we'll argue that point Peter ...

EDITORIAL No. 65. April 1985

OUR YNF CAMPAIGN

IT'S COMMONPLACE IN our schools for positive discrimination in favour of blacks to be practised. It's an every day occurrence for Marxism, peace studies and gay rights to be taught to twelve, thirteen and fourteen year-olds.

A generation of teachers, brought up in the flower-power era of the late sixties now have a free hand to manipulate young impressionable minds instilling in them lies about equality, lies about patriotism and demanding guilt feelings for the achievements of our forefathers.

Local education authorities are cynically building up political power bases by fawning over coloured immigrant communities putting black kids before whites to secure the coloured vote at the next general election.

RESERVATIONS

It is to this background that the National Front launched its YNF schools' campaign. We readily acknowledge that there isn't a parent in the country that won't have reservations over the handing out of political literature at schoolgates.

Political indoctrination of young minds is going ahead every day inside our classrooms by teachers whose only allegiance is to Marxism. Our campaign outside the school gates seeks to redress that balance; and we believe it can for two reasons.

National Front presence at schools up and down the country make pupils aware that there is an alternative point of view. National Front presence at school gates warns left-wing teachers that there is organised opposition to their mind-bending ways.

Scum always rises to the surface and as was so readily seen outside Swanley Comprehensive; those teachers who were the most vocal were the ones that felt threatened with exposure.

Great Britain was built on the heroic deeds and sacrifices of our forefathers, we owe it to them to make sure our future generations protect and cultivate the legacy they gave us.

RECORDED CRIMES ROSE by 8 per-cent last year according to a Home Office Statistical Bulletin published in March.

There were 3½ million recorded offences. The Metropolitan Police District showed a rise of 9 per-cent while, amongst specific crimes, muggings were up 11 per-cent.

All in all, since Margaret Thatcher came to power in 1979 recorded crime has risen a staggering 37 per-cent. What an appalling record for a government that came to power posturing as the party of law and order!

Giving rise to further concern is the total lack of criticism by the establishment to these figures. At almost any other time in the last twenty years a Home Secretary who published a new set of figures showing an 8% rise in the crime rate would have been pilloried. Just imagine the reaction of the Sun, Mail or Express had a Labour Home Secretary produced such figures.

The silence of the establishment means only one thing. They are bankrupt of ideas to combat rising crime. By that silence they are deserting the old, weak and disabled who are easy prey for the criminal classes. By that silence they are inflicting on a generation of British people a legacy of fear. Fear to go about their daily business, fear to go shopping, even fear when going out to visit friends.

That silence from the establishment means that the government can no longer guarantee its citizens the reasonable possibility of a safe passage through Britain's streets. A Government that cannot do that has no right to govern!

COURSING:

GAMBLING ON A HARE'S DEATH

ON TUESDAY 26th February at the village of Great Altcar in West Lancashire, twenty-five of our native brown hares were ripped to pieces to the cheers of 10,000 spectators.

The Waterloo Cup is the 'cup final' of a 'sport' called hare-coursing. The aim of this sport is for two dogs, usually greyhounds, to compete against each other as they pursue the hare.

Hare coursing is not pest control, in fact hares are becoming so rare that the Altcar Coursing Club brings in hares for the Waterloo Cup spending £350 each year on importing up to 100 hares from Yorkshire and Scotland.

EXHAUSTED

In the event itself, the hares are driven to the coursing field by people known as beaters. Their passage is often over fields where their paws become caked with clay to slow them down. The two dogs are then released when the exhausted hare enters the field and a judge on horseback marks the dogs on their expertise in chasing and capturing the hare. A leaflet from the League Against Cruel Sports' gives a graphic description of the end of the chase.

"The death is not a pretty sight. When both dogs catch the quarry, the hare can become a 'living rope' in a tug-of-war, being pulled and torn between two powerful animals. The hare's agony may last several minutes depending on how quickly the handlers or 'pickers up' reach the dogs. The hare at this point is more often than not alive and screaming. It is then taken from the dogs and killed, usually by having its neck broken."

DECLINE

The hare coursing season takes place between September and March with as many as 1000 hares being killed. Figures from the National Game Survey conducted from 1962 onwards show a general pattern of decline in the hare population in all major regions. There can be no doubt that these two sets of figures are linked.

The hare is a shy animal who threatens no one. Do you think it deserves such a cruel and shocking end to its existence?

BOOKMAKERS: The Weak Link

IN NOVEMBER 1975 a hare coursing bill received a majority of 117 in the House of Commons only to be thrown out by the House of Lords.

An opinion poll last year showed that 80% of people were against hare coursing.

This year protestors at the Waterloo Cup mounted their biggest ever campaign to stop the event.

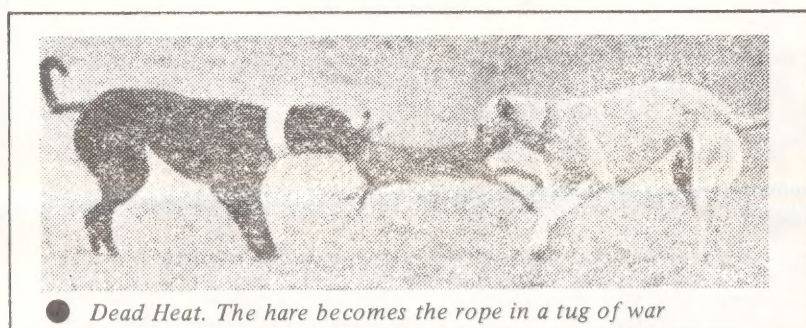

Yet hare coursing survives, and even thrives. This years attendance at Altcar of over 10,000 was the biggest for some years.

WHY?

GAMBLING

The answer is simple. It is because of the betting. It is the gambling aspect that keeps the Waterloo Cup and hare coursing going. Remove the betting licence for such events and hare coursing would be dead in a couple of years.

With the failure of conventional confrontation tactics by animal welfare supporters, National Front News believes the time has come

● Dead Heat. The hare becomes the rope in a tug of war for a different approach.

Over the next ten months every MP must be lobbied to support a bill to amend the gaming act concerning hare coursing meetings. At the same time those bookmakers who operate at the events must be approached and the case for animal welfare put to them in the most forceful terms.

OLD SCHOOL

Pressure against people such as Viscount Leverhulme who owns the land where the Waterloo Cup takes place or the events organiser Sir Mark Prescott will be to no avail. They are from the old school of British land-owning gentry, push them and they'll dig in further. But bookmakers, many of whom were immigrants to this country at the beginning of this century, have none of those qualities. A little pressure and they'll be off for a quieter life.

It's up to you to help National Front News in its campaign against hare-coursing. Write to your MP today.

Rural Heritage Fear

THE FORESTRY COMMISSION has denied that the sale of its land to private buyers would endanger the survival of ancient woodlands and sites of special scientific interest.

However, National Front News believes that plans to dispose of nearly 170,000 acres of woodland by 1986, is a national scandal.

The environmental group, The Friends of the Earth, have claimed that voluntary conservation groups who wished to acquire the woods were being 'gazumped' by commercial forestry interests. These powerful commercial companies were then felling all the trees — or were converting the woods into plantations to attract tax concessions.

Once again, it can be seen that the interests of powerful financial cliques are not the same as the people's interest. Our precious rural heritage is being destroyed by Capitalism, which works on the principal of profit comes before people.

FUR TRADE HORROR

ANY BRANCH of the fur trade is deplorable, but the domestic pets of animal loving Britons are now finding themselves at the centre of two alarming new developments.

The first, is semi legal, where trusting pet owners leave sick animals with the R.S.P.C.A. to be put to sleep, in turn, the unsuspecting officials pay for the disposal of the bodies. It has now been found that the skins of the pets are ending up on the racks of dealers, in a bid to stop this the R.S.P.C.A. have announced plans to mark future pet skins.

PET THEFTS

This, however, will do little to combat the second problem where callous thieves do not even wait for pets to die. This fast growing spate of pet thefts may seem trivial to some, but to a lonely old lady whose only friend is her cat it is very worrying indeed.

● Target for the fur trade.

WORKING FOR THE SMALL FARMER

The 10,000 biggest farmers in Britain, all millionaires already, receive half of all public subsidy devoted to agriculture.

At the same time between 3,000 and 4,000 small farmers go out of business each year through bankruptcy or by selling up because of declining income.

The imbalance in Britain's farming is a direct result of the EEC farm Policy which encourages the increase in size and decrease in the number of Britain's farms, while this Tory government's policies directly favour the giant 'agri-business' lowland farms while neglecting smaller holdings and hill farms.

DESERVES

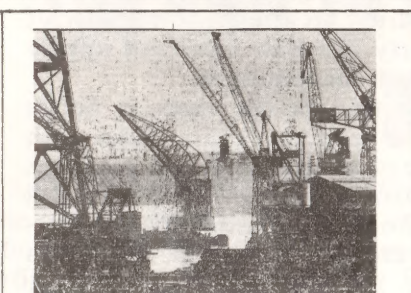

On March 1st the Small Farmers Association was launched to promote the interests of family worked farms. This organisation deserves the support of all small farmers and the British people as a whole. Research by groups such as the Soil Association has proved that family farms are much more productive per acre than capital-intensive farms and at the same time respect the environment in which they exist.

SOLD OFF: Yarrow men stabbed in the back

THE GOVERNMENT'S first steps in scuttling Britain's war fleet were taken on Monday March 25th when the very successful, state-owned Yarrow warship yard on Clydeside was sold off.

The deal on the yard went ahead without the workforce being consulted and now angry union leaders are waiting for the news concerning what are rumoured to be, large scale redundancies.

Yarrow's prime business is building frigates for the Royal Navy, a tradition that goes back before the yard was nationalised. It is a scandal that not only a national asset but a cornerstone in the defence of the realm can be sold off in such a manner; and all the unacceptable faces of capitalism were present at the deal. Norman Tebbit disposing of what rightfully belongs to the British people, Lazards, the City Merchant Bank arranging the sale and the new owner, Lord Weinstock, managing director of GEC.

RESEARCH

The success of shipbuilding relies on continual investment. Investment to update equipment, investment for research into new technology and investment to keep the industry going when orders for new ships are difficult to come by.

Will a private company be prepared for that investment when the profit Yarrow is now making starts to dry up?

The Times of March 25th had this to say about the yard's new owner "Lord Weinstock has been criticised on several occasions in the last year for failing to invest his company's huge cash reserves".

National Front News believes this is not the sort of man who should be entrusted with maintaining the defence of great Britain.

Weinstock will he invest in the Yarrow?

NCB GUILTY OF DOUBLE VALUES

THE NATIONAL Coal Board is guilty of double standards by refusing to employ miners who have committed violence against fellow miners or damaged NCB property.

Five miners convicted of causing £300 worth of damage to NCB property were given their jobs back at Westhorpe Colliery.

Robert Meecham, convicted of causing actual bodily harm to a fellow miner during the strike was given his job back at Shire Oaks Colliery.

Christopher Kane, convicted of causing actual bodily harm to a fellow miner during the strike was given his job back at Shirebrook Colliery.

Douglas Steele, convicted of causing actual bodily harm to a fellow miner during the strike was also given his job back at Shirebrook Colliery.

Why these men got their jobs back was because they crossed picket lines and broke the strike. So it appears that only violence and criminal damage by miners who remained loyal to the strike offends the Coal Board.

Victimised. Miners who stayed loyal to the strike.

POLLUTION DAMNING REPORT ON THE MERSEY

Clean up our waterways!

THE RIVER MERSEY has been condemned as a national pollution blackspot.

In a damning report, the Royal Commission of Environmental Pollution has said that the cleaning up of the Mersey should be made a national priority.

The Commission also stressed that there should be regular financial support for the long-term clean up plan proposed recently by the North West Water Authority (NWWA). The 230-page report represented ten years of study and reports on all forms of pollution.

It notes that Liverpool and the Wirral, with a population of 1½ million, is the largest area in the country which pours untreated waste into a river.

Of all the blackspot estuaries in Britain, the report states that the Mersey "stands out as the worst example."

OXYGEN CONTENT

The NWWA has already embarked on a long-term strategy for improving the Mersey. They initially plan to clean up all of the Mersey's tributaries to lessen the pollution - and to improve the river's oxygen content which is vital to allow fish to return in quantity.

The scheme is estimated to take about 25 years and cost nearly £4 million - a testimony to the severe degree of pollution in the Mersey.

Concluding its report on the Mersey, the Royal Commission echoed the National Front's view that controlling pollution of the environment is not an optional extra. It should be a fundamental part of national policy - and must be given priority and the necessary cash.

STANDING UP FOR EALING'S WHITES

ON FRIDAY 22nd March twenty members of Ealing National Front attended a meeting of the Ealing Police Liaison Committee at Greenford Hall.

Joining the Front members in this chance to question local police and councillors were members from Ealing Labour Party, the Asian Southall Monitoring Group and a large audience made up from members of the public.

UPROAR

The very first question caused uproar. The platform asked why there was a lack of representation from Ealing's White community on the panel. This provoked GLC councillor Gareth Daniels to accuse the audience, who had applauded the question, of supporting the National Front. He then went into long discussion with the Southall Monitoring Group before staging a walk out because "... this meeting is full of National Front supporters", to which David Ellis, Chairman of Ealing National Front retorted "but you'll attend meetings with the IRA supporters though".

COMPLAINTS

Despite the walk out the meeting continued and views were aired for the first time which gave the police and remaining councillors an idea of the gripes and grumbles of the local white residents. Chief Superintendent Hay listened to complaints about black crime, blues parties and a rise in attacks by gangs of Asian youths on white youngsters.

The meeting proved a great success with frank and honest discussion taking place between the police committee and the local residents, but more important it was a great triumph for the Ealing National Front who were looked upon by the audience as the standard bearers of Ealing's white community.

POSTSCRIPT

ON MONDAY 25th March Ealing NF Organiser, Mark Alder, received a telephone call from a woman purporting to come from a 'Rights for Whites' organisation. She requested the local NF to attend a meeting on the Golf Links Estate in Southall in support of the borough's white community.

The proposed meeting never took place. At the rendezvous point, however, an Asian mob had gathered who for over an hour chanted 'Kill the NF' 'Kill Whites' and 'Whites Out'.

A large police presence made no arrests despite clear incitement to racial hatred by the mob.

Mark Alder told NF News that he will be raising this point with the police committee at the next liaison meeting.

NUCLEAR 'RUN' ANNOUNCED

DETAILS of routes used to transport nuclear waste through London have at last been made public.

It has been revealed that the waste is carried along more than 50 miles of railway track through densely populated areas.

The trains - carrying the spent fuel from the nuclear power stations at Sizewell, Suffolk, and Bradwell, Essex - enter London at Harold Hill and follow a route via Romford, Ilford and Stratford to Temple Mills Yard near Leyton.

From there they travel via Lea Bridge, South Tottenham, Upper Holloway, Hampstead Heath and Kensal Rise to Willesden.

Trains from the nuclear power stations at Dungeness, in Kent, cross into London from Swanley and go to Willesden via St. Mary Cray, Chislehurst, Grove Park, Nunhead, Brixton, Factory Junction, Longhedge Junction and the West London line.

After being connected at Willesden, the train makes its way to Willsdale/Sellafield in Cumbria, where the fuel is reprocessed.

Readers of National Front News who live near these areas, may like to reflect on the idea of nuclear waste being transported so close to them. For the potential danger routes are now clear for all to see.

BRITISH WATERS FOR BRITISH FISHERMEN

edible Whitefish in traditional British fishing grounds to be turned into fertilizer and animal feed. The 'by-catch' limit, allowing the taking of baby fish of other commercial species, has been raised - at Denmark's insistence - to 18 per cent. This has also infuriated British Fishermen.

The situation is expected to get worse when Spain joins the Common Market. For the huge Spanish fishing fleet - which is 2½ times the size of all the present Common Market fleets put together - will be able to sweep into British waters and fish them bare. British trawlermen have already claimed that Spain's entry into the Common Market will ruin their livelihoods.

The only way to save our fishing fleet is to get Britain out of the Common Market - and kick all foreign boats out of our waters, and the only way to achieve that is to support the National Front.

BRITISH TRAWLERMEN have condemned the Government's climbdown on North Sea fishing policy which will allow Danish fishermen to scoop up millions of young fish and thus imperil British fishery stocks. They also fear a further disaster to their industry when Spain joins the EEC.

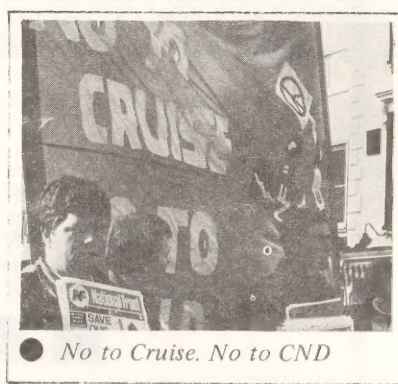

At a Common Market Council of Ministers meeting last year, Britain conceded! Denmark's demand to be allowed to catch tens of thousands of

PICKET AT CND DEMO

OVER 600 'No to Cruise, No to CND' leaflets were given out by Worcestershire National Front during a demonstration against a CND march in Kidderminster.

Twenty members of the local NF also sold NF News, Nationalism Today and NF badges outside the town as the Mayor of Kidderminster and the Mayor of Worcester addressed the CND rally inside.

Chief inspector Allan Jones of Kidderminster police told the Worcester Evening Mail that the National Front demonstration had been conducted in an orderly manner.

No to Cruise. No to CND

LABOUR ON THE RUN

FORWARD, THE newsletter of Runcorn Labour Party spends most of its latest bulletin bemoaning the fact that its leafleters are receiving a hostile reception from Runcorn residents.

It reports, "While delivering last month's Forward some members were literally chased right out of one estate by National Front supporters".

Is it so strange that Labour supporters should receive such a reception when their policies on immigration, defence, homosexuals, capital punishment and Northern Ireland are totally at odds with the thinking of the majority of British workers?

On Reflection with Ted Budden

THROUGHOUT HISTORY, powerful nations have leaned on their weaker neighbours so as to establish a peaceful world order conducive to their aims. In ancient times it was the Pax Romana. In our heyday it was the Pax Britannica. Today it is the Pax Pepsi Cola. It is indeed a peace that passeth all understanding.

For the instrument of America's international arm twisting is the Central Intelligence Agency — the name implies that it gathers intelligence not that it possesses any.

The CIA's purpose is to engage in covert interference in the affairs of other sovereign nations, ostensibly in the service of the US government. Organising insurrection and assassination; infiltration of trade unions and other public bodies; bribing influential people — these are the means by which the CIA seeks to maintain the Pax Pepsi Cola.

EXTENSION

But what characterises the CIA most of all is its crass ineptitude and bungling ham-fistedness. Its apparent inability to understand the rest of the world is not just a second rate extension of the United States has brought chaos to South and Central America, to Southern Africa, to the Middle East and, I have no doubt, to Ulster, to name but a few.

Its atrociously inaccurate intelligence gathering that led to the Bay of Pigs fiasco; the revelation by the engagingly frank Prime Minister of Singapore, Lee Kuan Yew, that the CIA had offered him a straight four million dollar bribe, incidents such as these have grievously embarrassed the US government throughout the years. Really, they must sometimes have wondered just who the CIA was working for.

However, we now learn that the remainder of the Ethiopian Falasha Jews have been secretly flown from the Sudan to Israel where, no doubt, in the fullness of time they will be laying claim to their alleged ancestral homeland, namely Jordan. And the organisers of the airlift? Why, none other than the good old CIA.

Well at least we now know who they're working for.

I MUST say that the recent uproar over "surrogate motherhood" leaves me absolutely cold. While it may not be ideal to pay a woman to bear a child for adoption, the child is, after all, a natural child destined to be cared for by loving parents.

Why then the simulated moral outrage of pontificating parliamentarians who are normally far better acquainted with moral contortions?

IMPOSSIBILITY

Procreation by proxy is certainly a bizarre way of begetting a family. Yet the only reason such a method is even considered is because of the near impossibility of finding children for adoption by any other means; well white children at least. Maybe it's the obvious expression of racial preference that is really

EVERY DAY in every way more and more people are wondering if the Foreign Office is really on our side. While it is not yet openly the friend of our enemies it is certainly showing itself to be the enemy of our friends.

UPSET

So really it was no surprise when the recent mysterious wave of black unrest in South Africa resulted in that country's Ambassador being summoned to the Foreign Office by that braw Scottish laddie Malcolm Rifkind (McAlready?) and given a severe reprimand. It was, admitted the stern Caledonian, interference in the internal affairs of another country but we simply bugging the denizens of the North Thames Gasworks.

The shortage of children for adoption is, of course, entirely due to the Abortion Act which those highly moral members of Parliament so enthusiastically passed into law. I could certainly understand their being upset by the idea of paying a woman to bear children if they themselves were not responsible for paying abortionists to kill 150,000 children each year.

So when that unctuous little pimple David Steel waxes indignant on matters of morality, we should all remember that it was this godly son of a Presbyterian missionary who introduced the abortion legislation into Parliament and ask, "And how many kids have you killed today."

had to let the beastly Springboks know where we stood.

Naturally, when the Black rioters were shot by massively outnumbered S.African police the Ambassador was yet again summoned to the Presence to receive an even severer wiggling.

The fearless Malcom was, he said, exceedingly blunt.

Strange then that the recent wave of killings by Israeli stormtroopers in Southern Lebanon did not get the Israeli Ambassador a severe tongue-lashing from the Foreign Office but merely a feeble bleat of protest and a querulous plea for "restraint".

But then the Foreign Office is not always blunt. Sometimes its Burgess and Maclean.

THE I.Q.'S OF G.I.'S

THOSE PEOPLE who support the siting of American Cruise Missiles in Britain might be less enthusiastic if they were aware of the educational standards of some of the American soldiers stationed in this country to operate them.

An American army booklet called "Military Words With Pictures" prepared by the army's Troop Information and Education Section for the benefit of soldiers with limited education or knowledge of English, reveals the near-moronic educational standards of some of its soldiers.

The residents of Moleworth, Lakenheath and Greenham should feel real concern that their so-called protectors have to be told that "playing ball, seeing movies and dancing constitutes recreation".

THIS IS A DAY ROOM.

HAS TREURNICHT BEEN READING NF NEWS?

IN ISSUE 63 OF National Front News we attacked the system of apartheid in South Africa. Dr. Andries Treurnicht, the leader of the South African Conservative Party has now come out openly in support of a plan which would meet our criticisms.

This solution envisages the separation of the races in South Africa by splitting the republic into separate nation states with one Nation for one Race. On the eastern seaboard two republics would be created: Kwazulu and Xhosaland providing nation states for both the Zulu people and the Xhosa. The existing Black homelands would be given extra land to create a continuous Black area divided on tribal lines.

Dr. Treurnicht has allowed his anti-British prejudice to influence his decision to call the main White homeland "Republiek Afrikaana" with the implication that many Whites of British descent would be left out. They are to be consigned to a multiracial nightmare zone ironically to be called the "Republic of Good Hope", which would include Coloureds, English-speaking White liberals and perhaps 250,000 Blacks.

While this is clearly a rather cynical attack on the English speaking White liberals, it may be seen in the context of the opening gambit of a propaganda campaign to get the plan adopted. There is little doubt that it

ROUMANIA CALLS FOR NATIONAL FREEDOM

PRESIDENT CEAUSESCU has come up with a proposal, which he recently put to Foreign Secretary, Sir Geoffrey Howe, to work towards dismantling both NATO and the Warsaw Pact. This radical proposal, which would hand back to the European nations the right to determine their own future without super-power intervention, was turned down flat by Sir Geoffrey Howe.

Sir
Geoffrey Howe enjoys being Reagan's
poodle

He claimed that NATO was essentially defensive and must remain in existence with the obvious consequence that the Warsaw Pact must also continue. This refusal by the British government has meant that an attempt by Roumania to bring the Warsaw Pact to an end has almost certainly failed. They had proposed that the Pact should only be renewed for five years; the Russians have suggested thirty years.

MORE SPINE

While Britain has actively acquiesced to NATO manoeuvres and always backs up America's imperialist aims, President Ceausescu has been showing more spine. He refuses to allow Warsaw Pact manoeuvres on Roumanian soil and does not permit Roumanian troops to take part in them whether or not on Roumanian soil.

Sir Geoffrey Howe may enjoy being Reagan's poodle, the British people do not. We should carefully grasp the outstretched hand of Roumania and start working to a Europe that rejects both America and Russia and is made up of sovereign nations which work together in peaceful co-existence.

BRITAIN ARMS ARGIES

ARGENTINA HAS re-armed so much since the Falklands war that it is now in a better position than ever to take on Britain. And Britain is supplying much of the equipment! That was the shock conclusion of a report prepared by Falklands War expert, Dr. Paul Rogers, of Bradford University.

For now Argentina has nearly six times as many Exocet missiles. Its aircraft are now capable of re-fuelling in mid-air. It also has sophisticated anti-runway bombs, which could be used against the Islands only airport — Mount Pleasant.

Dr. Rogers also notes of this new arms build-up "Although Britain was the victor in the 1982 conflict, it may well be more accurate to see that conflict as the opening stage of what could be a prolonged war of attrition."

But the keynote of his report was the "unusual feature" of Britain effectively re-arming Argentina.

Rolls-Royce, for instance, has supplied Olympus gas turbines for new Argentinian frigates, while the would only be a matter of months after the adoption of such a plan that Whites would be forced to flee from such a nightmare in the same way that they have been forced to flee from Rhodesia. They would presumably then have to agree to live in a state which is run on strictly racial lines.

TRUE RACIALISM

We can only applaud this courageous plan which would provide true separate development for the different races in Southern Africa and provide for the differing tribes of Blacks which inhabit Southern Africa. This plan is true racialism, not the perverted form currently prevailing in South Africa whereby Blacks are forced into shanty towns where they provide what is effectively a slave market for the richer white population and where they cannot possibly express their traditions and their culture.

It would provide for the Whites a state of their own which is secure, where white values, culture and traditions can flourish and where the Whites can take pride in their achievements without having to rely on Black slave labour.

● And now we're re-arming them.

firm of David Brown is supplying engine transmission systems. Argentinian corvettes are also being fitted with Decca radar.

LINE THEIR POCKETS

It is now three years since the Falklands war. But Dr. Rogers' report clearly shows that whilst our soldiers may die, the bosses and politicians are always ready to line their pockets from the evils of war.

Instead of worrying about small-fry like Clive Ponting, the System should be put on trial, convicted, and sent down forever!

WE SAY: 'Worry about the British for a change!

ABOUT 5,000 ethnic Indians and Africans are to become "British Nationals (Overseas)" under the Government's Hongkong Bill which was given its second reading in the House of Lords recently. This means that as soon as there is some problem in Hongkong, and that is almost inevitable, then there will be the usual international campaign for Britain to "assume its responsibility" and take in these "refugees".

ABSURD

Although making these Blacks and Asians "British" is clearly absurd, even this does not go far enough for the Right Reverend Hugh Montefiore, the Bishop of Birmingham, who speaking in the debate wanted to know why they should not have the right to settle in Britain.

As usual the Government is creating difficulties for itself and is prepared to perpetrate more horrors on the British people because it will not accept that the only basis for nationality must be Race and not place of birth. As far as the National Front is concerned Hongkong should be given to the Chinese, and, anyone who lives there, apart from those of White British descent, should be the problem of Peking and not of the British people.

'Free Pizzas' with every deposit

SEVENTY neighbourhood banks shut their doors for a week in Ohio at the end of March because they didn't have the money to pay investors. They had fallen victim of their own actions which form part of the greatest theft in history.

RECKLESS

This particular incident should be even more worrying because it wasn't caused by the excessive and reckless lending to the third world which is being carried on by the major banks. It simply happened because one bank got into serious problems and everyone started to wonder about the security of their money held in other banks. As a result hundreds of millions of dollars were withdrawn in four days from Ohio banks and they were forced to shut their doors before they all collapsed.

Even after they re-opened savers have been restricted to withdrawing just 750 dollars a month of their own money. The basic cause of this failure is that every time someone deposits money at a bank it is lent out several times over as is shown by the diagram opposite.

Once closed, lawyers, politicians and bureaucrats worked feverishly to produce guidelines to get them re-opened before the panic spread to other areas. Even the local pizza chain was involved offering free pizzas to anyone who deposited more than 500 dollars, while the State Governor issued statements saying that everything was alright really.

With the whole world's banking system becoming increasingly chaotic and unstable, this failure is just a symptom of the innate corruption of a system which should never have been allowed to even get off the ground.

NF NEWS

Diary

A REPRESENTATIVE from the National Front will be considered for an opportunity to expound the policies of the party on the Channel Four programme 'Comment'.

Fiona Maddocks, editor of 'Comment' has reassured a NF News reader from Liverpool that his query as to why no National Front speaker had appeared on the programme would be looked at and that she would "certainly bear in mind the points" he made "when selecting future speakers".

We eagerly await Ms. Maddocks's deliberations.

LIBERAL LEADER, David Steel's efforts to please everyone has once again got him into trouble.

While all establishment politicians acknowledge that it is useful to belong to as many pressure groups as possible in order to pick up those vital extra votes come general election time, David Steel joining both the Liberal Friends of Israel and the Liberal Palestinian Middle East Council is pushing the boat out a bit far.

Now his opportunism has forced him to resign from both groups leaving them confused and angry, leaving David Owen's supporters to rub their hands in glee at another example of the Liberal's leader's total lack of leadership qualities.

THE TIMES of 15th March reports that the West German coalition government has agreed on a new 'Auschwitz Lie' law which enables the authorities to prosecute people who deny Nazi crimes against the Jews.

The 'Auschwitz Lie' is by name a misnomer for this law, for over the last couple of years even Jewish historians have acknowledged that there was no exterminations at Auschwitz. But even if there were is it right to pass laws to stop research into history? If the genocide by the Nazis truly took place then what is there to fear from the closest examination by researchers. The truth can stand up to the most detailed scrutiny. Lies, propaganda and half-truths do not.

RESIDENTS in Southall have been warned to look out for their Indian neighbours burning extra large bonfires on a Sunday afternoon.

News comes from Delhi that cases of bride-burning are on the increase, 307 already confirmed this year. Brides are burnt to death mostly over dowry disputes.

Er, seen Mrs. Patel lately?

THE PRESS Council has quite rightly ruled that it was justifiable for the Kensington News and Post to mention the colour of a gang of black youths who robbed white passengers in a London underground train after the Notting Hill Carnival.

It was rejecting a complaint that it was improper to identify a gang of thieves as black and their victims white when it had no bearing on the story.

The gentleman so concerned to cover up black crime was one R. Crosskey of 25, Bracewell Road, West London (Tel: 01-969-2723). Maybe some of our readers would like to drop him a line or give him a call to give him their views on the subject.

THIS DIARIST acknowledges a gift to the nation made by Mr. Kenneth Levy, who, when he died last December left his collection of paintings including a Renoir, a Monet and a Matisse valued at over £1 million to the Tate and National Galleries. Now let them dare say that this column is anti-semitic.

Patrick Harrington takes a look at 'SEARCHLIGHTS' The Anti-British Voice of Arsonists and Burglars

CAST YOUR MIND back to the 30th of January, 1984 and the report broadcast that night on Panorama entitled 'Maggie's Militant Tendency'. The programme concerned alleged infiltration of the Conservative Party by sinister racials. In the best traditions of current affairs reports (or 'topical productions' as the BBC quaintly likes to call it) the programme singled out a few patriotic individuals in the Conservative Party and did a hatchet job on them.

Tory Party Chairman, Selwyn Gummer, was given the opportunity to watch the programme as it was broadcast and then to comment on it at the end of the programme in an interview. Mr. Gummer was unusually reticent for a politician. At one point during his interview on the programme he stated "You want to look at some of the infiltration that has gone on in this programme". He did not elaborate further.

Could he perchance have been referring to the fact that a certain Mr. Gerry Gable was an "Associate Producer" of the Panorama report. Mr. Gable is a well known figure in Nationalist circles due to his involvement in the publication of Searchlight magazine.

Mr. Gable is the Chairman of Searchlight Publishing Company as well as a major shareholder.

Searchlight used to specialise in "exposing" the National Front but has recently branched out to deal with the Conservative Party.

Gerry Gable Former

Other Shareholders include Michael Cohen, David Edgar and Elizabeth Ludmer.

Michael Cohen can often be seen skulking in doorways along the route of NF demonstrations draped in cameras fitted with telephoto lenses. Most of his photos end up in Searchlight although he has supplied photos to other publications. The name of David Edgar will no doubt be familiar to our readers. David is a world famous dramatist. Who could forget 'Man in Bed' or 'A Fart for Europe'? Educated at Oundle Public School, David is obviously a cultured man. Elizabeth Ludmer is the widow of Maurice Ludmer. Ludmer died of a heart attack in May 1981 at the age of 54. He was according to an editorial in Searchlight No 108 of June 1984, "a giant in the fight against racism and fascism". Mr. Ludmer was also a prominent Communist Party activist for many years. In 1963 he sponsored a Mrs. O'Brien as Communist candidate in Mosely ward of Birmingham in the local elections. In 1967 he performed a similar service for the Communist Party candidate Mr. Brian M. Chambers.

Mr. Gable himself has stood as a candidate for the Communist Party. On May 10, 1962 in Northfield Ward in Hackney where he polled 178 votes.

Searchlight is distributed to various bookshops in London by Central Books of 37 Grays Inn Road, London, WC1 which is controlled by the Communist Party!

Mr. Gable also has an interesting criminal record in addition to his political one. We aren't really supposed to mention it because of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Fortunately, however, Mr. Gable does not believe in the observance of this act so he won't mind us telling you.

STEALING

On 14th January 1974 Mr. Gable admitted breaking into the flat of David Irving, author of the Destruction of Dresden with intent to steal. Manny Carpel also admitted the offence. They were each fined £20. Gable was also fined £5 for stealing a GPO pass card. Mr. John Mathew, defence counsel had claimed that Gable and Carpel had hoped to find political material which they could take to the Special Branch.

Mr. Gable's associate, Carpel has been convicted of a string of criminal offences. In 1963 he was convicted of possession of an offensive weapon and of assaulting police. In the same year he was jailed for thirty months for arson. At his trial Carpel described himself as a journalist working for Searchlight. In 1966 Carpel pleaded 'Guilty' to breaking into Spearhead magazine and as recently as 1981 was jailed for arson at the Sussex printing works.

Panorama is currently being sued for libel by a number of individuals featured in the programme. No doubt BBC lawyers will argue that the programme was "in the public interest". With people like Mr. Gable on the production team one might be inclined to question whether this was the motivation behind the broadcast.

Biggest Front Meeting for Newcastle

"THE GROWTH of the National Front in Newcastle is of vital importance. For here we have a branch of the National Front that has grown up in a predominantly white area with little coloured immigrant settlement. Here the National Front can be on the political offensive instead, as in many other areas with large immigrant populations continually on the defensive."

Those were Joe Pearce's words to a packed meeting of Newcastle National Front where over 70 members and supporters were addressed by both Joe and Ian Stuart, organiser of Central London Branch of the National Front. It was the largest National Front meeting ever held in the town.

The growth of Newcastle NF hasn't gone unnoticed locally. Outside the meeting nearly 200 students and local Reds were demonstrating against increased National Front activity in Tyneside.

Policy Briefing

DOES THE NATIONAL FRONT WANT AN EMPIRE?

The answer to this is no. We believe that all nations should have the right to determine their own futures without any outside political or economic interference.

DOES THIS MEAN THAT YOU WOULD GIVE THE FALKLAND ISLANDS TO ARGENTINA?

NO. The Falkland Islands are peopled with individuals of direct British descent who have regularly expressed the wish to remain part of Britain. No other nation has even permanently populated these islands and they should remain part of Britain.

WHAT ABOUT HONG KONG?

Hong Kong is entirely different. It is populated by Chinese people and by other Asians and some Africans. None of these people belong to the same race as the British people. They are racially, culturally and temperamentally different to the British. Because the vast majority of the people of Hong Kong are Chinese they should be re-united with the rest of China.

BUT DOESN'T BRITAIN HAVE A LARGE INVESTMENT IN HONG KONG?

Yes. But the survival of our race is more important than money. Also this investment should never have gone to Hong Kong, if it had been invested in this country instead then we might not be in quite the mess we find ourselves in today.

WHERE DOES THE NATIONAL FRONT STAND ON GIBRALTAR?

Gibraltar is populated by people of Spanish or North African origin, or a mixture of the two. As such they have no connection with Britain except that they were once conquered by us. It is absurd that they should remain part of Britain. If one of Gibraltar's famous monkeys waved a union jack, would that entitle him to carry a British passport and presumably to claim social security benefits?

BUT ISN'T GIBRALTAR OF STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE?

Only if Britain wants to become the world's policeman. The days of sending gunboats to police a multiracial empire are over. All that we now have as a result of our empire is a multiracial slum and industry starved of investment. Gibraltar was used in the past to protect our trade route with India and look what came back along that trade route: millions of Asians. Britain must be capable at all times of defending itself, but not the lands of other people who are racially different and who may be thousands of miles away.

WHO WOULD THE NATIONAL FRONT GIVE BRITISH PASSPORTS TO?

White British people only, this would include the Falkland Islanders but not the people of Hong Kong or Gibraltar. The class of "citizen" called British citizen (overseas) would be abolished.

WHAT ABOUT AUSTRALIANS AND NEW ZEALANDERS?

Although partly or even largely of British descent they now have built up their own countries and now determine their own future. We recognise that racially many of their countrymen are identical to the British and we would encourage cultural links and friendship but a political union is impracticable and undesirable. We would also encourage a controlled cross-flow of people between the White nations to maintain these links of Race and of friendship. However, they have the right to determine their own destiny.

Covering Race and Immigration, The Economy, Law and Order, Foreign Affairs and many others, this is an essential guide to the stand taken by the National Front against the decay and rot which is being imposed on our nation.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM. Joe Pearce. Pb. 40pp. £1.20 (20p). Written while serving a six month sentence for Race Relations Act offences Joe sets out the nationalist beliefs and ideals that provided him with the inspiration to defy Britain's corrupt and decadent Establishment. It is a highly readable explanation of the whole basis of nationalism and is an essential introduction to the subject.

THE NATIONAL FRONT STATEMENT OF POLICY.
Completely re-written this new statement of policy has just become available. It is the first major revision for over 6 years and provides an immediate guide to NF policies. If you know people who are sympathetic but don't take the NF seriously or believe we are only interested in repatriating the Blacks then show them this.
Only available in packs of 8 for £1.00 including postage.

BEYOND CAPITALISM AND SOCIALISM. The National Front. 22pp. 30p (20p). This book marks a stage in the development of the National Front. It avoids some issues and 'fudges' others. It should not be taken as N.F. policy but is still a far better book on economics than most others, and covers an area where there is a dearth of books giving any nationalist viewpoint.

MARCHING ON. The Nationalist Welfare Association. 24pp. £1.00 (20p). A photo book dedicated to the memory of Albert Mariner who was killed on his way to an NF election rally. It includes photographs of NF marches, members and activities, pictures of what we are fighting for and what we are fighting against. A fascinating pictorial introduction to the National Front.

THE NATIONAL FRONT EVIDENCE TO THE HOME AFFAIRS COMMITTEE ON THE LAW RELATING TO PUBLIC ORDER. 51pp. £1.20 (20p).

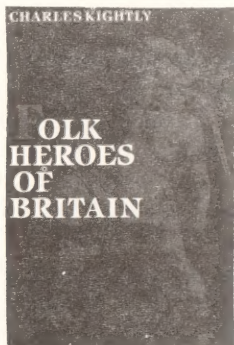

Largely written by M. Webster this covers many areas of the law on public order. It describes the use of violence by our opponents, the details of what happened at events such as Red Lion Square, the Lewisham march, the meeting in Southall. It details the beginning of the build up in oppression of the National Front by red opponents and by the establishment.

VICTORY IN PALESTINE.

A broadsheet which has been produced as a supplement to Nationalism Today detailing the aggressive and atrocity ridden expansion of the state of Israel. If you've ever had any sympathy with the phrase: "Brave Little Israel" then read this. Available in packs of 5 for 70p or 8 for £1.00 including postage.

FOLK HEROES OF BRITAIN. Charles Kightly. Pb. 208pp. £4.95 (70p).
Here, for the first time, is the true story of some of the most romantic and colourful figures in the whole of British history. Queen Boadicea, Caratacus, King Alfred and Hereward the Wake. By using contemporary sources and chronicles and by looking afresh at the landscape in which they lived the author reveals the enthralling facts about these legendary men and women.

1957. Poems by Paul Comben.
Pb. 27pp. £1.00 (20p).
A collection of poems written between Spring 1980 and Summer 1984. Within the three themes of Love, War and Life, they represent the feelings, values and beliefs that the author deems to be the most important amidst today's uncertainties.

GREAT COBBETT: THE NOBLEST AGITATOR. Daniel Green. Hb. 496pp. £12.95 (1.72). Cobbett remains, a century and a half after his death, one of the most interesting and puzzling figures in English literature and British public life. He had been born into a changeless, agrarian England which he longed to restore. He had to live in an England where rapid industrial and social change threatened to destroy what he held to be eternal values.

ULSTER: THE FACTS. Dr. Ian Paisley, M.P.; Ald. Peter Robinson, M.P.; Rt. Hon. John Taylor. Pb. 128pp. £3.00 (40p).
Dedicated to the memory of Robert Bradford, Member of Parliament for South Belfast, murdered by IRA terrorists on Saturday 14th November 1981. This is the truth about Ulster, not the biased coverage which you see on the television and read in the newspapers. If you are interested in Northern Ireland then you must read this book.

THE SILMARILLION. J.R.R. Tolkien. Pb. 439pp. £2.95 (50p). This is an account of the Elven Days, or the First Age of Tolkien's World. It is the ancient drama to which the characters in The Lord of The Rings look back and in whose events some of them such as Elrond and Galadriel, took part. The tales are set in an age when Morgoth, the first Dark Lord, dwelt in Middle Earth and the High Elves made war upon him.

UNFINISHED TALES. J.R.R. Tolkien. Pb. 472pp. £2.95 (60p). This is a collection of narratives ranging in time from the Elder Days of Middle-earth to the end of the War of the Ring. As well as stories such as the presence of the Dwarves at the Bag-End party, and the emergence of the sea-god Ulmo, there is also an exact description of the military organisation of the Riders of Rohan.

THE ENVIRONMENTAL CRISIS.
Ed. D. Wilson. Pb. 196pp. £4.50

NF Gets Action

MEDWAY NATIONAL Front achieved a great victory when Medway Council turned down a planning application by an Asian to extend his post office in Borstal Road, Rochester.

Sid Campbell, the local NF organiser and his branch worked long and hard in their campaign against the proposed extension after local traders had approached the Front for help.

Sid Campbell
Organiser for Medway

Over 300 'Defend Local Traders' leaflets were put out and a petition with over 500 signatures against the extension presented to the council.

PERSUADED

The Asian is to appeal against the ruling. He told the Kent Evening Post on March 14th "The National Front leaflet opposing my plan had persuaded Medway Council to turn down my application".

The swift action by Medway National Front is a prime example of how the National Front can prove to be effective in local politics. The British public like success. The NF campaign against the Borstal Road extension provided them with both!

and again..

A NEWCASTLE-Under-Lyme councillor has called for ritual slaughter to be banned both locally and nationally.

His remarks came during a council debate over the opening of an Islamic Abattoir in Kildgrove, Staffs.

DREW ATTENTION

It was National Front News No. 62 published in January of this year which first drew attention to a planning application for the abattoir and now a full campaign has been organised in the town against it.

Councillor Jack Beech said at a meeting of the Staffordshire District Council's Association that he had never known such a public outcry in the town as over this issue, while Councillor Tom Meir said "I feel that if we have people of the Islamic faith in this country they ought to accept the methods of slaughter of our country."

UNWANTED IMPORTS

THE DEPARTMENT of Trade has refused to ban the importation of Japanese dog collars which give dogs horrific electric shocks whenever they bark. The Department claims that they cannot ban the collars on moral grounds. As usual the government is either unprepared to offend so-called "trading partners" or is simply downright incompetent.

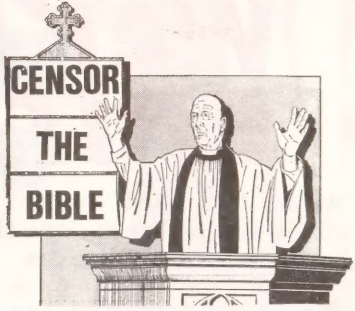

NF News acknowledges there may not be many British people who would use these awful devices but they still should not be allowed to go on sale in this country.

Adding up the Additives

THE AVERAGE Briton swallows 11lbs of chemical additives a year with his food intake.

Dr. Peter Mansfield, in a recent report published on March 4th likened that to the equivalent of 24 aspirin-sized tablets a day. He said that nobody knew how much harm artificial flavouring caused because the ingredients of most were secret and subject to no regulations.

While Durham has its "CUCKOOS" in Salisbury Cathedral

WE SPY A BLACKBIRD!

THE LATEST book to fall victim of the Race Relations Gestapo is not Noddy or Jungle Book, but the book on which much of the Christian faith rests: The Bible. Led by the Bishop of Salisbury, the Rt Rev John Baker, the Bible has now been declared to be "racist".

The Bishop, who is soon to become the Chairman (although no doubt this will soon become Chairperson) of the Church of England's Doctrine Commission believes that the Bible must be cleansed of its racism.

He recently declared that: "A conscious and publicly declared re-appraisal of biblical insights was essential if the churches were to address themselves to their part in the racial situation with cleansed consciences".

He also attacked the "antisemitism which Christianity spewed out from the earliest times", and he claimed that Christianity must take a major share of the blame for Nazi genocide and for the earlier pogroms in Russia.

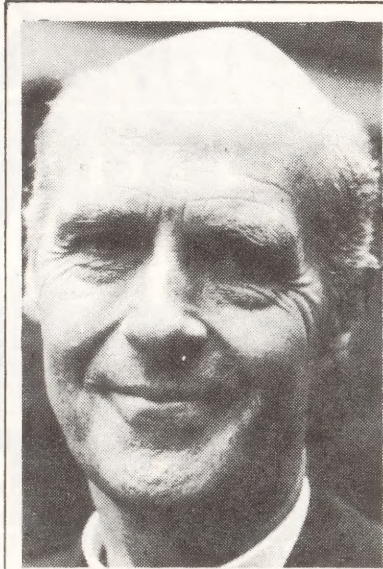

PRIME CULPRIT

Not only the theology of Christianity which he refers to as the "prime culprit" in the spread of racism but also later theologians come under attack. Bishop Baker claims that these "obsessions and misinformed ideas" have been reflected in the writings of Luther, G.K. Chesterton and John Buchan.

He finishes off his attack with the statement: "We simply shall never be able to exert real force and influence against the evils of racism so long as our total cultural, social and political vision is that of a civilisation in which racism is endemic".

Could it not possibly be Reverend Bishop, that racism is the healthy outward manifestation of our instincts which have built up the human species, preserved and protected it, and enabled it to arrive at where it is today? Could it not possibly be that to destroy our innate racial outlook would be to destroy our instincts, our culture, our civilisation and our species?

● Bishop of Salisbury.

Could it not possibly be that the Bible recognises that, that Luther, G.K. Chesterton and John Buchan recognised that, and that you are wrong?

"But they can't be marching; I've banned them" (overheard in Woburn House)

BETTER LUCK NEXT TIME LEON

ALL MARCHES WERE banned in London for two days as a result of a proposed march by the South London Region of the NF in Woolwich. For several months South London NF members had been carrying out regular activities in Woolwich in an attempt to revive the lapsed local unit. The march was to be the high point of the campaign and was on the theme "Work not Dole".

Substantial discussions took place with the police over operational details of the march and on several occasions individual officers expressed their view that there was no reason why the march should not go ahead. However it came as no great surprise when on Friday 22nd March the day before the march a telephone call was received announcing that there was a ban on all marches not just in Woolwich or even South London, but right across the nation's capital.

OUTSIDE

Notification of the ban was received at about 4.30p.m.; barely three hours later an officer of the Party was discussing the route of a march through Dartford which is about four miles outside the Metropolitan Police District which was the area covered by the ban.

By this time substantial press coverage had been won not only in Woolwich where the march had been originally intended, but right across London and even some national television coverage was won as a result of this local march. Also a number of 'Red' groups had announced that they intended to oppose the march, by massing at the NF re-direction point: London Bridge Station.

● NF. The Way Forward

On Saturday 23rd March despite the Public Order Act ban signed by Leon Brittan, the Home Secretary, which covered all of London the National Front still held its march just outside the banned area. About 150 NF supporters led by the London Drum Corps and a large flag party marched right through Dartford Town centre. The march has given our local election candidates in the area a significant boost and has helped the local unit which after a recent re-organisation has been working hard in the area. The 'Reds' were left scouring South London looking for the rally which they thought the National Front would be forced to fall back on.

PUBLICITY

After the march in Dartford the local unit organised a paper sale and leafletting drive in the town centre to capitalise on the march. Meanwhile Woolwich has not been forgotten, Michael Turner, the South London National Front Organiser, said:

"Leon Brittan may have stopped us marching in Woolwich, but we still got the publicity we wanted and we will be going back there over the next few weeks to hold a day of action in the town centre... and we won't be telling the police. We've been recruiting quite fast in Woolwich and the new unit will be holding its first meeting in April".

Leon Brittan and his side-kick Commissioner Kenneth Newham may be legally allowed to ban our marches but they can't stop our ideas spreading amongst the British people.

BITING THE HAND THAT FEEDS YOU

AN IRONIC twist has come to light over an aspect of the Patrick Harrington affair.

Between November and December of last year students, leaving the North London Polytechnic after demonstrating against Patrick Harrington continuing his studies there, were subjected to violent assaults.

Eighteen cases of physical attacks on students were reported and two incidents of students being stabbed.

Was this the work of a sinister NF retribution squad? No, just some of the students' ethnic brothers taking at face value the students' chants of 'Black and White Unite' and uniting themselves with some white jewellery, watches and cash etc.

The police are looking for . . .

RACIAL TENSION

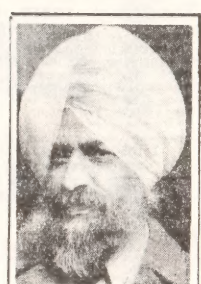

Asians warn the Blacks

ASIAN COMMUNITY leaders have warned of escalating racial conflict in Nottingham between their own communities and the town's West Indians.

As the results of a recent survey reveal an increase in attacks on Asian businesses, a spokesman for the community told a Nottingham evening paper, "We have cautioned our people not to take the law into their own hands but leave it to the authorities. The majority of assaults, robberies and vandalism that we have faced comes from the West Indian community".

Lords auction threatens common land

THIS IS the new Lord of the Manor of Butley in Suffolk. Mr. Iqbal Singh, formerly of India but now of Wimbledon succeeds a 900 year line of lords that includes a medieval Lord Chief Justice, King Henry VIII and Thomas, Duke of Norfolk.

● Lord Singh

Lord Singh bought the title at auction in London for £4,800, and although no lands, property, income or ancient rights of lordship come with it. Lord Singh says he intends to move to the area.

The sales of such titles removes the legal protection for all the common land within that manor making it easier to be purchased for development. It is a loophole in the 1965 Commons Registration Act that is being exploited.

National Front News calls for the 1965 act to be amended to make sure that common land stays common land whoever or whatever purchases the title to the manor.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"MANY OF us in the Anglican Church think it is about time we ought to decide our own affairs without Jews, Methodists, Muslims and all sorts of other people interfering in the internal affairs of the Anglican Church."

Labour MP Eric Heffer in the House of Commons on March 4th proving that there's a bit of common-sense in even the most lunatic of left-wing MP's.

What a load of poppy cock

A LAUGHABLE attempt has been made by Michael Cocks, Labour MP for Bristol South to connect the National Front with football violence.

Cocks is to meet Sports Minister, Neil McFarlane and present him with a map showing the distribution of votes for the National Front at the last election was concentrated around football grounds where there is the most trouble.

He told the Western Daily Press on March 21st, "My research demonstrates that there is a direct relationship between the size of the NF vote in the immediate vicinity of the grounds where trouble is prevalent".

DEBATE

His remarks bought a swift response from Andy Andrews, Chairman of Bristol National Front who issued a challenge to the Labour MP, through the Western Daily Press, to a debate on football violence and who is responsible for it.

"Mr Cocks's argument is a brilliant example of the absence of logic", he told the paper "if he wants to apportion the blame on the number of votes polled in the area of football grounds then the Conservatives, the Labour Party and the Alliance must take the blame as well!"

Andy Andrews

on
violence

Cocks's claims have been dismissed by Football Association Secretary Ted Croker, while an investigation into any involvement of the NF in football violence, by the sports ministry started over a year ago has not come up with a shred of evidence.

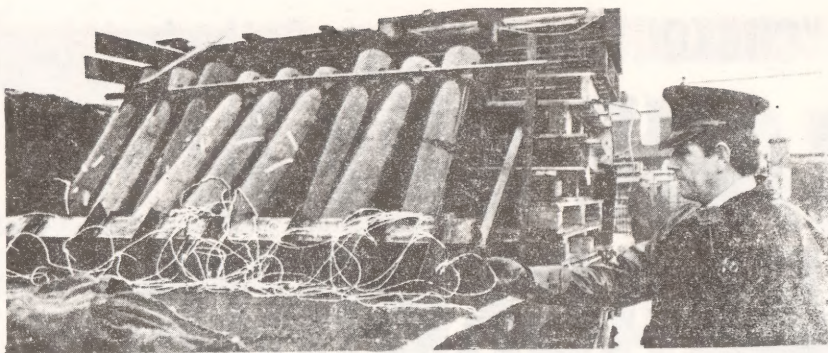

Michael Cocks's allegations are pure propaganda. Next month he faces reselection for his Bristol South constituency where the Militant Tendency seem certain to unseat him. By attacking the NF Cocks is staging a last ditch attempt to attract some of those votes back from the extreme left.

IRA Rocket launcher killed nine Ulster policemen.

DUBLIN TALKS GIVING IN TO MURDER

ON THURSDAY 28th February nine members of the Royal Ulster Constabulary were murdered by the IRA when a mortar bomb hit their police canteen. Less than four weeks later Britain's Conservative Government was starting negotiations which could give the IRA what they want; a united Ireland run from Dublin.

On one hand Mrs Thatcher described the bombing as "barbaric" but on the other hand she keeps encouraging such murderous acts by entering negotiations with the Eire government. Is it any wonder that the IRA receive as much encouragement from Mrs Thatcher as they receive arms from America?

Initially the talks in Dublin were kept secret but when details leaked out it was revealed that Sir Geoffrey Howe, the Foreign Secretary, and Mr. Douglas Hurd, Secretary of State for Northern Ireland, had what they described as "a serious working session" with Mr. Dick Spring, the deputy Prime Minister. Now such a high level discussion is unlikely to be about the price of eggs.

SELL-OUT

Mr. Hurd, in particular, is all in favour of a sell out. He has openly gone on record as being in favour of "a consultative role" for Dublin in Northern Ireland. It is perhaps no coincidence either that almost immediately after his talks in Dublin he should fly to America where on Wednesday 27th March he addressed the New York Council on Foreign Relations.

He described the talks between Westminster and Dublin as "constructive" and hoped that they would be brought to a "sound conclusion". The American involvement in the future of Ulster is becoming increasingly obvious. As Mr. Enoch Powell recently stated on television their approach is "a cheque book in one hand and an armalite in the other".

Douglas Hurd seems only too happy to try to involve the Americans in discussing the future of Ulster, yet it is surely outrageous that just 26 days after touring the devastated police station he should be discussing a sell-out with the Americans and the Eire government, while at the same time he is making no effort to meet any of the real Loyalist leaders of Northern Ireland.

Nine British people were killed by that mortar bomb including two Women Police Constables - Mr. Hurd by his actions, is betraying those lives.

●Carnage. No talks should take place after this!

NOBODY EVEN ASKED

NOBODY ASKED the British people whether they wanted to become a multi-cultural society. No referendum was ever taken, no political party's manifesto campaigned on such an issue, no opinion poll even asked the British people if they ever wanted coloured immigration.

Today Tory, Labour and Alliance politicians refuse to discuss the subject of coloured immigration and those individuals who do speak out against it face hostility, insults and even prison sentences. But all is not lost . . .

The National Front alone believes that the British people should have been asked whether they wanted a multi-racial society. The National Front alone believes that coloured immigration has been a disaster for Great Britain and a disaster for the British people, and it is only the National Front that campaigns for the return of coloured immigrants to their country of ethnic origin. If you agree then . . .
